MEMO FOR RECORD:

Matt Baird advised on September 29 that his office had put on a lunch for Mr. Hoskins and two of his officials while Mr. Dulles was away. Mr. Baird stated that he did not feel that it was now necessary for Mr. Dulles to follow up on the invitation which he said he would extend to Mr. Hoskins upon his return.

Dear Harold:

Many thanks for your note of August 4 enclosing the material on your training program. I have sent the enclosures on to Matt Baird for his perusal.

I am leaving on Friday for Europe and will be away for about a month, so I regret that our luncheon will have to be postponed until my return. In the meantime, however, I understand Matt and some of the members of his staff would very much like to discuss your training program. Matt will be in touch with you on this shortly.

I am sorry we cannot get together for lunch at this time but I will call you upon my return and we can arrange a mutually convenient luncheon date then.

Sincerely,
